- A bachelor's or master's degree in computer science, information technology, software engineering, or a related field.
- Proficiency in relevant programming languages (such as Java, Python, .NET), database management (like SQL, Oracle), and web development technologies (HTML, CSS, JavaScript).
- Knowledge in designing scalable, secure, and efficient system architectures, including cloud-based solutions.

- Understanding of cybersecurity principles, data protection laws, and experience in implementing secure online platforms, especially those handling sensitive personal data.
- Skills in designing user-friendly interfaces, considering the diverse user base, including those with limited tech proficiency.

b. Professional Experience:

- At least five (5) years' experience or more in developing platforms for visa processing, immigration, or similar government-related systems.
- Proven ability to manage large-scale IT projects, including timelines, budgets, and cross-functional teams.
- Experience Working with Governments or International Bodies: Familiarity with bureaucratic processes, legal compliance, and working in a multi-stakeholder environment.
- Understanding of ECOWAS Regulations and Practices: Knowledge of ECOWAS policies, regional dynamics, and legal frameworks regarding immigration and data handling.

c. Additional Skills and Competencies:

- Proficiency in English and French.
- Ability to effectively communicate technical concepts to non-technical stakeholders and collaborate with various teams.
- Creative thinking and problem-solving abilities to address unique challenges in the project.
- Capability to adapt to changing project requirements and environments.
- Knowledge of ECOWAS and its Member States will be an added advantage.

5. Duration of the Contract

The consultancy is for a period of 4 months from start to finish, from the date of the signing of the contract between the Consultant and the ECOWAS Commission.

6. INVITATION

The ECOWAS Commission invites interested, eligible and qualified Individuals to apply for services described above.
